TO:

FROM:

SUBJECT: Use of OSO Disseminations

Reference the points you raise in your memorandum of 14 September 1949, the following action is taken on OSO disseminations:

a. Screening of disseminations is done in the [redacted] Disseminations believed to be of urgent interest are routed immediately to staff members. Others are marked according to category (political, economic, etc.), sorted by area and country and routed to staff members. They are returned to the library and become available to advanced students or other authorized users of the library.

b. Students in the pool and the basic courses do not have access to OSO disseminations. Students in the advanced courses in Building [redacted] make some use of the disseminations in preparing written work assigned in class.

c. Disseminations are available at all times in the library, one month after date of distribution. They are filed by country, subject (political, psychological, social, economic, technical, military, [redacted] and counterespionage). Within the subject folders disseminations are filed by date of distribution.

d. Students of the basic courses do not have access to disseminations. Thus, since the unsuitable students of the basic courses are not permitted to progress into the advanced training, they would not have access to such disseminations.
